

South Staffordshire Council
Council of the Year 2022

Training and Career Development

We want people to build a career at South Staffordshire.

We offer excellent continuous professional development opportunities from formal qualifications through to coaching and shadowing. We also have a successful talent management programme ASPIRE and work with local colleagues and universities to support apprentice levy approved qualifications.

Alongside this we are committed to providing an internal training programme that is accessible and relevant to our workforce and our Council plan.

